

WHAT IS HUMAN RELATIONS FACILITATION & DIALOGUE?

Purpose

- To gain an understanding of human relations and communications concepts that affect our interactions with others.

What is Human Relations Dialogue?

- Facilitated interaction in a diverse, cross-cultural setting, designed to build relationships and to improve community through applying information, group dialogue, and self-reflection.
- Based on a Communication Model
- Designed to reduce barriers to communication
- Exploring culture, values, identity, and social relations in their broadest and deepest contexts.

What Human Relations Dialogue is NOT

- Diversity Training
- Cultural Competency Training
- Therapy – Success should not be measured by the number of tissues dispensed