

THE BLACK CULTURAL CENTER

FALL SEMESTER 2021 INFOGRAPHIC

The information presented provides a snapshot of the activities and number of participants in the BCC during the Fall 2021 semester. Programming highlights, grant opportunities, as well as campus partnerships and collaborations are summarized to serve as an executive summary.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

There were 32 programs either sponsored by or held in the BCC during the fall term. These programs consisted of academic and social events, activities, workshops, collaborations and series. This list names some of them: Word of Mouth Poetry Slam, Soulful Friday, Financial Wellness, Student Leadership sessions, Mental Health Awareness, Reading Day, Game and Trivia nights, and the BCC Speaker Series: VTable Talks.

There were 1,532 students (undergrad and grad), faculty and staff that attended/participated in BCC programming. Overall, there were significantly more people that frequented the BCC during the fall, the count provided here is solely based on those that signed-in. There are numerous students and faculty that come to the BCC; we are awaiting approval for a mechanism to collect data on BCC traffic.

There were 26 on-campus partnerships and collaborations with the BCC during the fall term. Some of these include: VT Cultural and Community Centers, Ujima, SOAR, Moss Arts Center, Women's Center, Cook Counseling Center, Career & Professional Development, Student Success Center, Cranwell International Center, Black Caucus, NPHC, BSA, and several academic departments.

GRANTS & FUNDING

Moss Arts Center:
Women & Minority
Artist and Scholars
Lecture Series Fund

APPROVED: $750

Jessie Ball
duPont Fund

PENDING: $5,000

Smithfield-Preston Foundation
pledge/ sponsorship for BCC
achievement ceremony kente
stoles,

PENDING: $6,000